

Please do not lessen the hold on telemarketers. This interruption in our family lives is uncalled for. Why would you want to consider letting these aggravating people the right to make all these calls into our homes during the day or night? If they want to contact us let them do it through the US postal system and that way we can through the garbage in the waste basket as it arrives.

The laws should be tightened and not loosened.